

I do not want any taxes or fees applied to Internet Enabled Services. New taxes or fees are not in the interest of consumers. Policies should be designed to maximize competition in the marketplace. This is the way to lower prices and better service.